

Master-drummer David Jones

drummer / percussionist

“a vast palette of improvised music that swamps the senses with its inventiveness, unfamiliarity and sheer beauty.” (Herald Sun, 4 June, 2006)

David is often described as being one of the most innovative and musical drummers in the world, a true virtuoso musician.

In the hands (and feet) of David Jones, the drum kit comes alive as a mini-orchestra, vaudeville act, rhythmic explosion and hypnotic trance-inducer, all in one. Using sticks, brushes, mallets, fingers, elbows, violin bow, dish-mops, toys, brooms... and any percussion he can lay his hands on(!), David creates a universe of sounds, textures and rhythms that take you through different cultures, ages, moods and styles.

He has played and recorded with many great artists and bands, across all genres, including

James Morrison, John Farnham, Bryn Terfel, Time for Three, Bramwell Tovey, Keith Lockhart, John Williams, John Denver, Marcia Hines, Allan Zavod, Don Burrows, Buddy DeFranco, Kate Ceberano, Tommy Emmanuel, Debra Byrne, Rhonda Birchmore, Dame Kiri Te Kanawa, Ben Sidran, Larry Adler, Pyramid, Don McLean, Crossfire, AtmaSphere, MSO, SSO, WDR Big Band (Köln), Wycliffe Gordon, Wayne Bergeron, Chong Lim, David Campbell, David Hobson, Bill Watrous, Tony Gould, Dragon, Emily Remler, Mike Garson, Eartha Kitt, Ute Lemper, Stylus, Bliss (UK), Elaine Paige, Petula Clark ...

...[David's performance] was nothing less than a spiritual experience...to be truly transported by the power of the drum when it comes from a place of such deep intention as it does with David Jones

Michael Shrieve, original drummer for Santana

You have achieved what I thought was unachievable on the drum kit - very high level of musicality, dense but dynamic phrasing that one does not get tired of, with seemingly perfect time and the objective clearly on the music, not the ego.

Ed Mann, percussionist on 50 of Frank Zappa's albums

David Jones is, in my opinion, one of the greatest, most natural, musicians on the planet. His musicianship is mesmerising and captivating - I've always felt he was in a class of his own.

Tommy Emmanuel, international artist

His name is David Jones and he is from Australia... this cat has chops we all envy, but what sets him apart is how he uses them

Danny Seraphine (original drummer for Chicago)
