

Lesson Conditions

Please print 2 copies. Please read all of these conditions thoroughly and sign and date two copies. Keep one for yourself and return the second to the address below. (scroll down as there are 2 pages)

If interested in private one-on-one tuition or small group classes, please send an email to david@davidjonesdrums.com describing your musical history and a brief outline of areas that you would like to cover in the lessons.

Please note- include your phone number so I can contact you in due course. Please be patient as, according to schedules, it may take a few days to a few weeks to contact you.

Once David accepts your application via email:

1. Students should be very prepared, with questions to ask at the beginning of the lesson.
2. The lesson starts and finishes at the agreed time.
3. Cancellations and postponements require seven days' notice or the full lesson charge will apply.
4. Students are required to bring sticks, brushes and a blank manuscript book. Students should also, if possible, bring their current drum seat.
5. Students are welcome to record, both in visual and/or audio format, the lesson or parts thereof (this is strictly only for personal use. Copying for others is considered a copyright breach)
6. David reserves the right to give reasonable notice to cancel or postpone the lesson.
7. Students can purchase CDs and Videos at a reduced rate.
8. All lessons will be conducted on a full drum kit.
